The Marist University English Language Exam

In accordance with the Marist University's regulations, before getting a degree, students must demonstrate their proficiency in the English Language. (Reglamento Específico para la Obtención del Título de Licenciatura, Art. 2).

There are two ways to do it: first, you can show one of the following Diplomas: a current TOEFL (543-626 points) certificate; a First Certificate in English, a Certificate in Advanced English or higher. Also, you can show a CENNI (Certificación Nacional de Nivel de Idioma by SEP), B2 level.

Second, through the UMA's English Language Exam (which has a B2 – C1 level or 543-626 points of a TOEFL).

Cost and registration

The Marist University English Language Exam has a cost of $1 500.00 (one thousand and five hundred pesos 00/100). Ask for your OCR scan line (línea de captura) by email:

finanzas@umarista.edu.mx

Then, you can pay at any local branch of Banamex. Remember to keep your payment receipt and email it to cidum@umarista.edu.mx

Exam format:

Oral: through a chat / interview—in English—, alongside a teacher from the Language Center, which maximum duration will be 20 minutes.

Preferably, the Gsuite (specifically Meet) or zoom will be used as the platform to carry out the test. To do this, you must have your institutional email account (xxx@umarista.edu.mx).

During the chat / interview different questions will be asked to give you the opportunity to demonstrate that you have an intermediate level (B2) or higher.

Tip: In the first question, you will be asked to talk about yourself, your main activities and the city where you live. Take advantage of this opportunity!

In order to give transparency to the exam, you must enter with the camera and microphone open and show your ID (INE or Uma's credential)

Score

The result of the exam will be announced and explained to you after the jury's deliberation (maximum 1 hour later). Subsequently, the note will be given to the UMA General Secretariat.
